

HIPAA CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

I understand that during my employment with DiagnosTemps that I may have access to confidential information about patients, their families and DiagnosTemps' clients. I understand that I must maintain the confidentiality of all verbal, written and/or electronic information. That in some instances the information may be protected by law. I also fully maintain that it is part of a healthcare professionals ethical behavior to judiciously protect any and all information of a confidential nature.

Through this understanding, I agree to discuss confidential information only in clinical settings as it pertains to patient care with other like healthcare professionals where it may not be overheard by visitors, patients or any other party not privy to the information.

During each job assignment I agree to follow agencies and clients established procedures on maintaining confidentiality.

Employee

Date

DiagnosTemps